President Arthur's chances at Chicago seem to be improving. Ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, is opposed to him.

It would be to the everlasting honor of the United States senate to sit down on the Fitz John Porter bill. Treachery at a time like that in 1862, is a thing that never should be forgiven.

What the New England agricultural society has done—prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors at all future fairs of the society—should be done by state fairs throughout the country.

For dramatic festivals and high floods, Cincinnati can outdo any city in the country. It is feared that the high water at that city this month will be 70 feet above low water mark nearly as great as the memorable flood of 1791.

The Keely motor is very much like the democratic party. The latter has been postponing its national victory for many years, and the motor is month after month postponing the time when it shall show perpetual motion.

There is a striking amenity in this little paragraph, coming from a democratic paper, the New York Graphic: "Wendell Phillips has entered into his reward. He fought injustice wherever he found it, and at the same time was not a fanatic or a man of visions. If heaven is not made up in large portions of such souls as those of Wendell Phillips and Lloyd Garrison, there must be some better place for their accommodation."

Over in Iowa they are soon to have a genuine case of legal hanging, the first in that state for more than thirty years. It has been over a generation ago that life sentence for murder in the first degree was adopted. This tender-heartedness toward murderers did not lessen capital crimes. Murders and lynching became more frequent, and the old law was restored. It is said on authority that seems to be good, that there have been one hundred cases of mob hanging in that state since capital punishment was prohibited by law.

As a business transaction, St. Louis did well in procuring Mr. Harrison, the boy preacher, who by the way is 43, and has a family of several children. They pay him $100 a week, and he converts 35 souls a day, which is less than a half a dollar each. This is much better than Mr. Hammond served them who used to charge $200 a week and didn't always get 35 converts a day. St. Louis is setting a good example for Chicago. If the latter city would spend some of her whisky money on revivals the moral atmosphere of the town would be greatly improved.

The aristocracy of New York, like a good many other people, are not free from shoddy. They like the glitter of diamonds, or something that looks like diamonds, and are not particular as to how the diamond is made. It is said that paste diamonds are now made with such perfection that a rapidly moving eye, such as one meets at a social occasion, will hardly tell the difference, and a diamond of this very kind was picked up at Vanderbilt's the morning after the grand ball. It served its purpose at a cost of $10 as well as a $1,000 brilliante. It has been discovered that a good many of the glittering jewels that the aristocracy wear, are made of paste.

Miss Ella Wheeler doesn't propose to take any chances in the lottery of matrimony. It has been reported through the newspapers that with the coming of April showers, Ella would bloom into wifehood. She takes occasion to deny that she will be married in April, sending the State Journal the following characteristic card:

So far as I have any knowledge of, at present writing, I am not to be married in April. The patient persistance with which the newspapers of the country have from time to time appointed the date of my marriage during the last five years, is only equaled by the faith of the "Adventists," who constantly predict the near approach of the millenium. Yet both events may occur in the due time and season.

The annual report of the war department, which is just published, shows an organized militia of 81,216 non-commissioned officers and men, and 6,802 commissioned officers. Unorganized militia of all states, 6,419,912. New York has the largest organized militia force, having 10,779 men and 788 commissioned officers. Pennsylvania is second with 7,454 men and 552 commissioned officers. Florida is third with 6,261 men and 455 officers. Ohio fourth with 5,515 men and 369 officers. South Carolina fifth with 4,612 men and 507 officers. Delaware, Nebraska, Nevada and Vermont reported the smallest organized militia, the first-named having only 234 men and 21 officers; Nebraska, 450 men and 402 officers; Nevada, 615 men and 76 officers; and Vermont 621 men and 65 officers. Ohio has the largest unorganized militia strength, 500,000; New York, 492,628; Pennsylvania, 461,482; Illinois, 400,000; Missouri, 310,000.

It is barely possible that Queen Victoria legally became Mrs. John Brown—widow of "Gilly" Brown who died recently. The promised cessation that she was secretly married to Brown, her body-servant, shortly after the death of Prince Albert in 1861, may fall to the ground. It doesn't make any difference whether she is really Mrs. Brown or not; but the foolish gossip that she fell in love with, and married Brown early in her widowhood, has been started, and it is one of those peculiar sensations that people like to talk about. Victoria certainly had a wonderfully deep admiration for Brown. For more than twenty years he was ever present with her; and when he died, she ordered the poet laureate to embalm his memory in verse. She likewise commanded a monument to be erected to his honor, and a book to be written extolling his virtues. This love for the simple-minded but faithful servant, has set afloat the sensational gossip of her marriage to him.

Mr. Robert P. Porter, the well-known writer on political economy, and member of the recent tariff commission, has been divorced from his wife at Rockford. Mr. Porter came to this country from England about 20 years ago, and settled at Rockford. He worked on a farm for a while and afterwards procured some work on one of the Rockford papers as a reporter. His education was limited, but he studied diligently and worked hard, and paid a good deal of attention to economic questions, especially to municipal indebtedness in the United States. His articles attracted wide attention, and in a few years he became well known throughout the country. When his popularity became established and his income reasonably handsome, he neglected his wife and children. He frequently went to Europe under a commission from the New York Tribune, and of course would leave his wife behind. During his travels in this country which were quite extensive, his wife was permitted to remain at home while he enjoyed the luxury of traveling with gentlemen of means and prominence. He then began to withhold support from her, until she was compelled to sue for a divorce. The court gave her $10,250, and the custody of two children. This is one of the frequent cases in which the husband thought he had outgrown his wife in social position and importance.

EL MAHDI'S MISSION.

The Prophet, With a Burst of Confidence, Unmasks His Plans,

Which Show That He Is a Man of Enterprise---And Outlook for the Khedive in Egypt---Foreign Notes.

SUAKIM, Feb. 7.—A spy reports that El Mahdi recently wrote to Osman Digna, leader of the rebels in this vicinity, that he intended to invade Turkey and kill the Sultan, to conquer India and eventually to subjugate the whole world.

CAIRO, Feb. 7.—The garrison at Sinkat, under the command of Tewfik Bey, becoming desperate from the want of provisions and the long delay in receiving relief, made a bold attempt to cut their way through to Suakim, but were surrounded by the over watchful rebels and the band, numbering 400 men, together with their gallant commander, Tewfik Bey, were massacred.

CAIRO, Feb. 7.—Sir Evelyn Baring has received a telegram from Baker Pasha, stating that the force which attacked him numbered less than 1,000 men.

CAIRO, Feb. 7.—Public opinion here is strongly in favor of the appointment of Gen. Lord Wolseley to full military and political control in Egypt.

CAIRO, Feb. 7.—The telegraph wires have been cut north of Khartoum, and still later failed between Berber and Shendy, possibly indicating the advance of the rebels along the caravan route.

CAIRO, Feb. 7.—The English garrison here went through the forms of a defense of the city against a supposed attack. A sham-battle was fought.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Dispatches received here state that Gen. Gordon is at Koroska, and is unable to proceed further, owing to the fact that the tribes beyond that point have revolted and are in sympathy with El Mahdi.

The government has arranged for the transportation of 9,000 men to Egypt should it become necessary to send them.

Mr. James O'Kelly, M. P., who went to the Soudan as special correspondent, has not been heard from since the 18th of December.

The Anarchists' Opportunity.

LEIPSIC, Feb. 7.—Widespread distress exists among the working people of Saxony, owing to the dullness in manufactures, and paucity of employment. Seven of the sufferers committed suicide recently in one day in Leipsig.

The Anarchists are making every effort to inflame the populace to acts of violence. They openly denounce as traitors to the people the Socialists Bebel and Liebknecht, members of the lower house of the Saxon parliament, who have always been considered as among the radical champions of the popular cause. These gentlemen were formely members of the reichstag, where they were among the most persistent opponents of Prince Bismarck's policy, and in 1872 they were condemned to two years imprisonment for treasonable utterance. Their efforts have mainly been directed, however, to securing reform through legislation, and their methods are too moderate to suit the ideas of the present leaders of the Anarchist faction, who have caused placards to be posted in the royal palace at Dresden proclaiming that blood alone can satisfy their hatred of the aristocracy.

The British Policy.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A special cabinet council was held, and after prolonged discussion in regard to the situation in the Soudan and Egyptian affairs generally, it was decided not to send English troops to cope with the forces of the Mahdi, but to guard the Red sea ports with the British fleet now in those waters, and to land mariners from the vessels when it becomes necessary to protect property and to succor fugitives.

Strike Terminated.

MANCHESTER, Feb. 7.—The strike in the weaving branch of the cotton trade, which has lasted eight weeks, has terminated by the operatives accepting the 5 per cent. reduction in wages and resuming work.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The cotton weavers of Blackburn held a mass meeting and repudiated the action of their delegates in accepting the 5 per cent. reduction in wages proposed by the manufacturers.

The German Press on Egypt.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—The Cross Gazette, National Gazette and Vossisches Zeitung, in commenting upon recent events in Egypt, expresses the conviction that a new chapter in Egyptian history has been opened, and that a complete change in the political relations of that country must result.

Those Lasker Resolutions.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—The Cross Gazette remarks that Germany would receive with equanimity any American criticisms upon her social, political or economic condition, but the legislators at Washington might have spared the reichstag the incivility of the Lasker resolutions.

Prohibiting Mixed Marriages.

PESTH, Feb 7.—The lower house of the Hungarian diet has adopted a resolution offered by Herr Tisza, president of the council and minister of the interior, that the bill to legalize marriages between Jews and Christians be removed from the order of the day.

Friend to Our Hog.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—The Academy of Medicine, with one dissenting vote, has pronounced in favor of repealing the decree excluding American pork.

Advice from The Times.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Times urges the government to at once declare a protectorate over Egypt.

FARMERS IN COUNCIL.

Discussing Oleomargarine and Such Matters.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—At the national agricultural convention held at the Grand Central hotel ex-Mayor Hutchinson, of Utica, New York, presided. Mr. Joseph H. Reall, secretary of the convention read a paper upon the injustice done to the farmer by the sale of oleomargarine as butter. The dairyman, he argued, did not object to the sale of the artificial stuff under its true colors, but it was a well-known fact that in nine cases out of ten it was sold as butter. Legislation, he said, has failed to control any but the wholesale dealer. The moment a retailer gets his tubs of oleomargarine into his shop, the stuff becomes butter. Mr. William Hurdle, of Kentucky, read a letter from Mr. F. B. Thurber, in which he argued that the introduction of oleomargarine had been the means of benefiting the dairy people and enabling them to get a better price for their produce. He submitted figures showing that butter had been 10 per cent. higher during the five years that oleomargarine had been known. The Hon. George Blythe, of Pennsylvania, read a paper on the Guinon system of choosing cows. He said that from many years experience he found that the Holsteins were the best milk givers, but as butter producers, the Jersey and Guernsey cows had no equals. Papers were also read by George Moran, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., and M. Fulson, of this city.

ALMOST AN ENOCH ARDEN.

James Bonne Returns Home in Time to Stop a Wedding.

LONG BRANCH, Feb. 7.—James Bonne, a well-to-do young merchant of this place, was married to Miss Elizabeth Perry, of Asbury Park, at that time the belle of that well known temperance and summer resort, seven years ago. For four years the couple lived happily together, and two children came to grace their home. About two years ago Mr. Bonne was called to New York on business, as he at that time informed his wife. Not returning after several days the New York police were asked to search the city and morgue for the absentee but no tidings came of him.

After wearing her widow weeds for awhile believing her husband dead, Mrs. Bonne, still beautiful, began to receive the attentions of several young men of Asbury Park. The favorite one was a well to do young gentleman named Russel Hampton, who finally became engaged to the young widow, as she supposed herself to be. A few days ago, when everything had been arranged for the coming nuptials, the long absent and supposed dead Bonne made his appearance. It is said that the absentee received anything but a cordial reception on all sides. Mrs. Bonne was much prostrated at the position she came near finding herself in, and it is said that she will now seek a legal separation from her truant lord.

A Powerful Telephone.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Mr. Alfred Beal is a young gentleman with a fine tenor voice, and he sang recently very acceptably "Goodby, Sweetheart," "Away Down Upon the Suwanee River" and other popular ballads. Mr. Beal was in Elmira. The half dozen gentlemen who listened to him were in the battery room of the Postal Telegraph building, No. 40 Broadway, the singer and his audience being separated by a distance of 200 miles. Yet every note came pure and clear, and each word of the songs distinct. The instrument which made such a thing possible is the telephone invented by Mr. Webster Gillette. Mr. Gillette's first instrument was an ordinary telephone with a single point, with which it was possible to talk well for 100 miles. Then he conceived the idea of multiplying the points—something which had by electricians been pronounced impossible. He constructed an instrument with two points and found it a great improvement. The next advance was the quadruplex, and the instrument used had ten points. He has another with twenty points, by which he hopes to talk to London.

Somebody Persecuted.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Dr. F. C. Ludlow, living at 338 Vine street, swore out a warrant before Squire Lowry, charging Mrs. Lovina Parshall with slander and libel. Constable Landurson arrested her about 7 o'clock at her residence, 117 West Ninth street. In the complaint it is asserted that Mrs. Parshall is guilty of writing obscene and threatening letters to Mrs. Ludlow, with the apparent object of driving the latter to leave her husband so that Mrs. P. can have him. In her answer Mrs. P. declares she has written no such letters as are charged upon her, nor any other letters to the complainant or her husband, but on the contrary has been annoyed by numerous anonymous communications asking her to meet Dr. Ludlow at various places. Dr. L.'s story is the same as his wife's. It is developed in the papers that the doctor was engaged to be married to Mrs. Parshall before he met his present wife, but the marriage was broken off.

Angry Workmen.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 7.—About 500 men, who have been employed on the construction of the West Shore road, and who have not received any pay for two months, congregated at the company's depot on Louisiana street and angrily demanded to know the whereabouts of the pay-car. They were told it was at Syracuse and would arrive in a day or two, but this did not seem to satisfy them and they started for East Buffalo to tear up the tracks of the company. A force of thirty policemen were sent after them and arrived just in time to prevent the work of destruction. On being promised that they would be paid off before Saturday night they disappeared. They said that if they were not paid by 4 o'clock Friday afternoon they would carry out their purpose of destroying the tracks and bridges in this vicinity.

Nationalities and Destinations.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The official report of the superintendent of Castle garden shows that the number of emigrants landed here from the countries named during the year 1883, as follows: Germany, 176,000; Ireland, 65,186; England, 41,500; Italy, 23,000; Hungary, 13,150; Sweden, 20,000; Norway, 12,000; Switzerland, 10,000; Scotland, 8,000.

The avowed destination of the people were as follows:

New York, 105,000; Massachusetts, 11,000; Illinois, 32,000; Ohio, 17,000; Wisconsin, 10,000; Michigan, 14,000; Iowa, 14,000; New Jersey, 10,000.

The Result of Recklessness.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Feb. 7.—A terrible powder explosion occurred in Texas Hollow, near Howard Furnace, last Saturday. William Wollom had brought a gallon of powder from the store in a paper sack. He poured it into his wife's lap and started to get a can, when his oldest boy threw a few grains on the fire. The flash ignited the powder in her lap, and the explosion that followed burned the mother and the child fatally, two other children dangerously, and spread the walls of the house, causing the roof to fall upon the victims.

LAID TO REST.

The Remains of Wendell Phillips Laid in the Tomb.

No Word of Eulogy Spoken Over the Great Orator's Body---The Ceremonies and Interment.

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—Were Wendell Phillips living he would probably have no unfavorable criticism to make on his funeral, except that he would condemn the action of the state and city government in being represented at the exercises. The arrangements throughout were of the simplest and most unostentatious character. Flags were hoisted at half-mast all over the city at sunrise, and early in the day people began to surround the old church on Hollis street. All classes of citizens were in the crowd, the large proportion of dusky countenances being evident at a glance. There were no services at the house, where only a few of the relatives and immediate friends were present. At 10:55 the casket was borne to the hearse. Several hundred persons lined the sidewalk on both Common and Tremont streets. As the casket appeared heads were bared and reverently bowed. The church, which is but a short distance away, was filled, the governor and staff, the mayor, and many legislators, and nearly every one in the city prominent in religious and reformatory causes being in attendance. On the plain casket was a delicate sheaf of wheat, with ivy leaves entwined in the lavender ribbons, the last token from one who was bound to him in life. The pall-bearers were: Theodore D. Weld, E. M. Davis, Judge Samuel E. Howell, Lewis Hayden, Wendell P. Garrison, Charles R. Whipple, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Dr. William I. Bowditch, John M. Forbes, R. F. Hallowell. The choir of St. Paul's opened the services with a hymn, "The Angels of Consolation." Rev. Samuel Longfellow read passages from Isaiah and offered a prayer, in which he alluded to Mr. Phillips as the generous youth turning from the world's prizes to be a voice to the voiceless, a friend to the friendless, a champion of a cause and a race degraded and rejected of men. Rev. Samuel May then gave out a hymn written by himself for the occasion, beginning, "Calmly, calmly lay him down," and offered a brief closing prayer. This, with the benediction, closed the service. Not a word of eulogy was uttered. The body was then escorted to Faneuil hall, without music, by the Shaw guards and the colored militia company. The police had to clear the way to the hall, so dense was the crowd attracted to the vicinity. The coffin reposed on a plain catafalque until 4 o'clock, four black soldiers standing about it. The face of the dead man bore no look of pain, but instead a smile, and the arms were folded on the breast. On the right of the platform stood a large floral harp, the offering of the Irish-American societies of Boston; on the base was the word "Ireland," worked in violets on a bed of carnations, with lillies on either side. On the left of the platform was a crown of ivy leaves studded with white japonica blossoms, the offering of Benjamin F. Butler. In the center, directly above the catafalque, was arranged a beautiful design, in the middle of which was the word "Humanity," built up with violets out of a bed of white carnations. This offering was made by the Irish national league of America. An unceasing multitude passed the coffin all the afternoon, conspicuous among those from abroad being Frederick Douglass and his new wife. At the appointed hour the casket was closed, and, as before, escorted by the colored men, was carried to the historic Granary burial ground and laid away. The interment was in the family vault, within ten feet of Tremont street, just to the right of the central gate, and within a few feet of Samuel Adams and Crispus Attucks. A plaster cast of the face was taken before the body left Faneuil hall.

Wrecked on the Rail.

WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 7.—The train on the New England road due in this city about 8 o'clock in the evening, struck a huge rock on the track near Towantic, eight miles from Waterbury. The engine and baggage-cars left the track, running 500 feet, when the engine and tender tumbled down an embankment sixty feet and were completely demolished. Engineer Warren Boght and Fireman William Fern, both of Hartford, were imprisoned beneath the wreck and had to be cut out. Both men were badly scalded but not fatally. The conductor, two brakemen, express messenger and the baggage master were injured. None of the passengers were injured. The wounded were brought to this city and the passengers sent on to Hartford. It is not known whether this is an attempt at train wrecking or not, but an investigation will be made.

Destruction by Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—The manufactory of the Phillips Electric Cable Manufacturing company on Wood street, above Twelfth, was entirely destroyed by fire, together with all its contents, consisting of machinery and four miles of ten-wire copper cable, manufactured for the United States Cable company, and ready for shipment. While the firemen were at work the roof of the building fell in, injuring four firemen quite severely. The origin of the fire is not known. Loss on building, $2,500, and on contents about $25,000, partially covered by insurance.

The Loyal Legion.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The state commandery of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States held their annual meeting at Delmonico's. About 100 members were present, Gen. Shaler presided. Favorable reports were made upon fourteen applications for membership. Other reports from various committees, showing the organization to be in a flourishing condition, were read, after which the members sat down to a banquet.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"FOX'S BOOK OF MARTYRS" contains many fright-ful stories of most agonizing suffering. But nothing, either in story or picture, can be more distressful than the sharp, severe, shooting pains daily and nightly endured by those who are martyrs to that most terrible torment, Neuralgia. To get rid of this martyrdom is the first business of all who suffer.

ATHLOPHOROS regenerates painful nerves, and drives out the horrors of Neuralgia.

ATHLOPHOROS gives health to Rheumatic sufferers whom the most skillful physicians have not been able to heal.

ATHLOPHOROS operates on the blood, muscles, and joints; and dissolving the acids that cause Rheumatism, removes them from the system.

ATHLOPHOROS is pronounced by all who have tried it an infallible specific for these obstinate and painful diseases.

Read the testimony of one of the sufferers. David Little, Sumner, Benner Co., Iowa, writes:

"I am past 71 years of age, have had the Rheumatism three years and eight months; lost one-third of my weight; could not walk, but shuffled along on crutches; could not sleep; nerves shattered, no strength in my hands, wrists, knees or feet. But thanks be to God for your great discovery! Athlophoros arrived Saturday night. I took a dose Sunday morning, felt it all over me, and kept on with it. Monday morning I got up and dressed myself, and walked out into the kitchen without the aid of crutch or cane, and wished them all a happy New Year. I rest well nights, am gaining in strength, and once more enjoy life. Wish I could put Athlophoros in the hands of every sufferer from this terrible disease."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

A Scotch syndicate has purchased the ranch property of six Texans for $2,500,000.

The Deadly Applejack.

MONTGOMERY, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Mr. Ludeau, a farmer, living three miles south of Washingtonville, while going home with a jug of apple whisky, stopped at a neighbor's to transact some business, leaving the jug in a barn, where it was found by a young man in the employ of F. B. Sayer, who helped himself so liberally to its contents that when Mr. Ludeau returned he found the man in a stupor, in which he remained until morning, when he died.

A Booming "Ile" Well.

OIL CITY, Pa., Feb. 7.—The Porter well made 700 barrels the first twenty-four hours, and was then doing twenty barrels an hour. McCalmont No. 7, made 460 barrels in twenty-four hours ending in the morning. After being drilled three feet deeper it made twenty-two barrels in the following hour.

WATERY WASTES.

Tremendous Flood in the Ohio and Its Numerous Tributaries.

Losses That Foot Up Into the Millions Already Reported---Destitution Among Thousands of Homeless.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 7.—Another day and night of steady rain, with the river above the sixty-foot mark and rising rapidly at every point between here and Pittsburg—such is the gloomy situation in Cincinnati. For a few hours more there will be gas, but it is doubtful if it holds out till morning. Within twenty-four hours the pumps at the waterworks will be stopped, and probably not a train can get into the city over any road. People who were hoping that the rise would stop at sixty-five feet are now predicting seventy-five, which will be four feet higher than the flood of one year ago. During the greater part of the last twenty-four hours the rise has been at the rate of four inches an hour.

Those living in the flooded districts are afraid to stay in top stories of their houses, and they have been moving out. Many who delayed getting out until the water was around them have been taking they families and goods to dry land in skiffs. A dozen school buildings were thrown open for the unfortunate, and churches will probably be opened for their accommodation.

The street cars between Covington and Cincinnati have been stopped. The cars running to Pendleton and Columbia were run through the water until it ran up to the seats, and at dark all travel was stopped. The Camp Washington tracks are deep under water, and so are those leading to Fairmount and Sedamville.

The flood has filled the streets of Columbia and Fulton; and covers the Cincinnati approach to the suspension bridge. The gas-works are surrounded, and all the tracks leading to the Grand Central depot are submerged. Some of the roads entering this depot have abandoned the running of trains entirely, while others are taking passengers at the Eighth street crossing. All loaded freight-cars have been run out of the city to points where the tracks are high. The steamboats are moored wherever they can find a safe place. None but small tow-boats can get under the bridges, and they are busy taking barges to places of safety.

Newport is one-third under water. The mayor of the city is among those who have been obliged to move his family to higher ground. The street-railroad track from Newport to Dayton is four feet under water. Bellevue is partially submerged, and in Dayton the flood has reached Fifth street. These towns are filled with working people, who lost all they had last year and have been in stringent circumstances ever since in consequence. They are poorly prepared for another such a visitation now, and must suffer severely.

There is danger that a high wind will make the river rough and topple over many frame buildings. Those who have deserted such buildings regret that they did not weight them by putting stones on the floor. The stock that is fattening in the distillery pens, probably 10,000 head in all, are being driven to the hills. There is a great rush for lamps, coal oil, rubber goods, cables and ropes, lanterns, etc., and dealers who have a supply of such articles are getting their own figures for them. Skiffs which three days ago could have been bought for $10 are now selling at $50.

At Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 7.—It is still raining, with no immediate prospets of clearing weather. The Monongahela stopped rising a couple of hours, but commenced swelling again, and marks now show thirty-three feet and six inches. In the Allegheny the water is still rising. Dispatches from up the Monongahela valley report the waters also falling. At Freeport, on the Allegheny, it is also falling, but rising at Oil City and Parker's. In this city the streets by Duquesne way on the north and Water street on the south, and from the junction of the two rivers to Sixth street, including Penn avenue, Liberty, First to Sixth Ferry, and Short streets are almost entirely submerged, and every street south of Penn avenue to Sharpsburg, a distance of five miles is under from one to ten feet of water. Library hall, on Penn avenue, where Lawrence Barrett was playing, was compelled to suspend performances until the water recedes. The city is in semi-darkness. The water is up to the works, and, while the gas is still burning, it is very dim.

On the south side every street south of Carson from Chartier's creek to Thirtieth is inundated, while all property within three squares of the river in Allegheny is submerged. At this time it is impossible to estimate the loss, but it is safe to say that it will not fall short of $1,000,000, and may greatly exceed that amount.

Fully 5,000 families are rendered homeless by flood. Arrangements have been made to shelter them in public halls. In accordance with a proclamation of Mayor Lyon, public meetings will be held at Froisinn and Turner halls for the purpose of making some provisions for them until the flood subsides sufficiently to permit them to return to their homes. The Allegheny council will also meet to discuss the situation and devise means for the relief of the unfortunates. Travel has been susponed on every railroad running out of the city, with the exception of the Pennsylvania Central.

LATER.—The Allegheny has receded half an inch. The Monongahela is on a stand. The bridge at Herr's Island, two miles above the city, valued at $27,000, has been carried away. It is raining again very hard.

At Wheeling.

WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 7.—The sixty-second hour of continuous rainfall has come to a close. The river is now forty-five feet, and rising at the rate of six inches an hour. Not less than five feet more is certainly expected, which will make a flood without precedent. Not less than 6,000 citizens have already been driven from their homes, 1,500 houses inundated, and a loss in money of over $1,000,000 inflicted. Reports from the surrounding towns of Bellaire, Bridgeport, Martin's Ferry, and West Wheeling, Ohio, and Wellsburg, Falton, Benwood Moundsville are heartrending, and within a radius of fifteen miles 20,000 people are homeless and damages estimated at $4,000,000 entailed. In this district half a dozen lives are known to have been lost. One-third of the city is under water, many streets being navigable for steamboats. Hundreds of families are without shelter. The up-town streets are filled with merchandise of every description from the business part of the town. No trains have left or arrived. Telegraphic communications are difficult and precarious. There are fears of loss of life. Citizens are panic-stricken, and the only thought is of safety for families and effects.

Excitement was occasioned by a report that many families were imprisoned by water in houses in the low part of town, and relief parties were organized by Mayor Miller and about twenty families rescued from perilous positions. Professor Stevenson and family were rescued from a dwelling on lower Sister Island, six miles above, by the towboat Belle Prince. Communication with the suburbs is cut off, the ferries not being able to run on account of driftwood and ice. The approaches to both bridges are flooded.

At Lawrenceburg.

AURORA, Ind., Feb. 7.—Intense excitement was caused here when the alarm bells in Lawrenceburg, two miles away, were distinctly heard. The levee above that town has given away, and no doubt the place is being subjected to a rushing flood. There are no means of obtaining particulars.

At Various Points.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 7.—Reports from the Muskingum valley, Louisville, Columbus and other points in Ohio, Washington and other points in Pennsylvania, and from points on the Mississippi, give details of rising waters and damage to property.

Disaster at Marietta.

MARIETTA, Ohio, Feb. 7.—The city has been plunged into the depth of mourning by a terrible disaster, the result of the high water. A large number of people were standing on the banks of the Muskingum river, watching the drifts on the surface, when the bank on which they were standing gave way and a large part of the crowd was thrown into the river. Those who did not fall in were overcome with panic, and many children were carried away by the swift waters before an effort could be made to save them. The wildest excitement prevails. No estimate can yet be made of the extent of the calamity, as nobody knows who composed the crowd. It is thought at least fifteen persons were drowned. The town is almost completely overflowed and hundreds of families have abandoned their homes, moving away in some cases with only what they could carry. The river has reached forty-five feet, and reports from above confirm the belief entertained that the present flood will be without a parallel.

Lost in the Rush.

ERIE, Pa., Feb. 7.—When the ice gorge in the Allaghany river broke it flooded the highways down the valley to a great depth. The flood overtook John and Mrs. Danforth, who were riding in a sleigh. The vehicle was smashed, the horse killed, and Mr. and Mrs. Danforth caught up and hurled forward with great violence. Mrs. Danforth was struck by a timber and sunk. Danforth escaped, but is seriously injured.

THE HENNEPIN CANAL.

A Victory in Committee---Prospects of the Scheme.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 7.—The Hennepin canal people won a decisive victory in the house committee on railways and canals. Mr. Murphy was ordered to report favorably the bill making an appropriation of $1,000,000 to begin work on the canal. The vote in the committee stood 8 to 2. The friends of the Maryland & Delaware ship canal were rather displeased because their bill was not joined to the Hennepin measure, and some of them threaten to make trouble unless that shall hereafter be done. The two votes against the bill were cast by Mr. Turner, of Kentucky, who is chronically opposed to anything, and by Atkinson, of Pennsylvania, who has more affiliations with railroads than with waterways. Murphy is very enthusiastic about the vote of the committee, and expresses the opinion that the bill will pass the house.

The Mississippi River convention will probably not report directly in favor of the Hennepin canal. It will recommend east and west waterways, however, which the friends of Hennepin will interpret in their interest. The convention will probably recommend that the upper Mississippi improvements be continued on the present plan, under the direction of the engineer corps, and that the river improvements below Cairo be continued under the supervision of the Mississippi River commission.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 7.—In the senate, bills were reported to amend the Chinese restriction act and to provide for the suppression of pleuro-pneumonia. A bill was introduced to provide indemnity for the state of Iowa under the swamp-land acts. There was further debate on the bill regarding Mexican land-grants.

In the house of representatives a resolution was adopted calling on the secretary of the interior for copies of all papers regarding irregular practices on the part of attorneys practicing before the pension office. Bills were introduced to authorize the purchase of snug harbors for disabled seamen and to establish a branch home for crippled soldiers in one of the western states. Resolutions were adopted requesting from the president copies of correspondence with Great Britian respecting the extradition of alleged fugitives from justice, and calling on the secretary of state for facts in connection with the absence of foreign ministers and consuls from their posts during the past two years. The remainder of the session was devoted to debate on the pleuro-pneumonia bill.

To Prevent Boiler Explosions.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—A device to prevent boiler explosions has recently been patented by two New York engineers. It consists of an electric battery, placed on the wall near the boiler, connected with a gong by negative and positive wires. The wires run to the water gauge and connect with a glass bulb filled with mercury. When the water falls below the point of attachment the steam rushes into the space surrounding the mercury bulb, and the mercury expands. As it rises in the tube it comes in contact with a platinum wire, thus closing the electric circuit and ringing the alarm bell. When water is pumped into the boiler it forces the steam back, breaks the circuit, and puts the alarm in working order again.

General Weaver on Butler.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—A special to The Tribune, from Des Moines, Iowa, says:

"Ben Butler is a million and half stronger than his party," said Gen. Weaver. "If he is nominated by the Democracy there will be no Greenback or Anti-Monopoly candidate. Butler would sweep Massachusetts, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas and Nebraska, and would not lose a state that Tilden carried. His campaign would not be equaled in enthusiasm by any other in our history," said the general. It may be added that the Democracy of Iowa, who are expected to furnish most of the votes necessary to carry Iowa under this scheme, do not agree with the sanguine Greenbacker regarding Butler's strength. They are for McDonald.

Starving to Death in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Dr. Arnold, the health officer of Hyde Park, found two men, father and son, in a very destitute condition in a hut on Seventy-first street, just east of Stony Island avenue. They gave their names as Joseph M. and Thomas Boud. The former is 82 years of age, and his son, who is about 30, is a confirmed cripple. Nothing is known of the antecedents of the men, who could not have survived much longer without food and care.

Maj. Wasson To Be Released.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 7.—Paymaster Wasson, whose trial and conviction for robbing the United States government aroused so much interest last year, will be released Sunday from the Kansas penitentiary by order of the president. A new suit of fine clothing has been sent him from here. Wasson will test the validity of the court-martial which sentenced him.

Struck Against the Schedule.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 7.—The schedule of prices was made known to the weavers in the Pocassets mills. Accordingly they struck at noon, and the mill has stopped. It is very probable that other mills will be affected soon.

To the Children, Greeting

We are going to make a proposition to you. We have got up two new kinds of BISCUIT, or CAKE. One kind we call NEW ENGLAND CHICKENS. You will find them very good. The other is a most delicious, soft Fruit Cake; we call it CITRON CAKE. It is entirely new to this country, being of German origin.

Now, what we propose is this: To the one who will make and send to us the closest guess of the number of NEW ENGLAND CHICKENS we shall sell between now and the 1st day of March, 1884, we will give a beautiful DIAMOND RING; and for the best guess on the number of CITRON CAKES, we will give as a Prize an elegant DIAMOND BREAST-PIN. In case two, or more persons should make the same guess and it prove to be the winning one, the prizes will be duplicated.

The goods will be packed in boxes, each containing eight CITRON CAKES or twelve NEW ENGLAND CHICKENS. In each box will be found a coupon, which will entitle the holder to one guess. In making your guesses, remember, it will not be the number of boxes, but the number of CHICKENS or individual CAKES which will be counted.

In order to give you an idea of what we may do, we will mention that when we started the famous JUMBO BISCUIT, during the first six months we sold upwards of 13,000,000 of them. As large as our facilities were for them, we could not supply the demand. Since then, however, we have largely increased our capacity, and hope to fill all orders promptly.

The competition will be strictly fair. Every guess must have signature and address attached, and must include all orders dated previous to the 1st day of March, when the account will be made up.

All communications, address to F. A. KENNEDY Co., 41 South Desplaines Street, Chicago, Ill.

Our senior partner, now in Europe, will personally select and bring home these gems, and you may rest assured they will be rich and beautiful.

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas, and dozens of Happy New Years, we remain, with kind regards, sincerely yours,

—"Have you got the mumps?" is the question asked among the school children now.

—The meetings which are being held in the M. E. church, in charge of the revivalist, Rev. Mr. Haywood, are well attended, and the interest seems to increase. Mr. Hayward is a very earnest worker, and a good singer, which is a great help in meetings of this kind.

—There was a delegation of the Methodist people of Clinton, in attendance at the meeting Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. Emma Klingbiel and son, of Iowa, have come home to live with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith. About a month ago, Mr. Klingbiel was thrown from a horse and died from the effects in a few hours. He was well known as a resident of our community some years ago.

—Mrs. S. D. Moseley and family desire to thank the friends and neighbors who have so kindly assisted them during the illness of Mr. Moseley.

—Mrs. Edwin Case is on the sick list with neuralgia.

—Mr. Fancher Earl is improving slowly.

—The funeral services of S. D. Mosley were held at the home of his son, E. D. Mosley, last Sunday at 1 o'clock p. m., Rev. M. Smith and J. V. [illegible] officiating. Mr. Mosley was born in Chaplin, Connecticut, in 1810; married Harriet Gage, of Concord, New Hampshire, and removed to Illinois in 1837. In 1843 he came to Beloit with his family and resided there until 1872, when he came to Shopiere, and in connection with his son, Erwin, started a blacksmith and wagon shop. Mr. and Mrs. Mosley have reared a family of five children, two sons are now living, L. N. Mosley, of Beloit, and E. D. Mosley of this place. There are few men who are as cheerful and happy in their every day life as Mr Moseley was. He was a member of the Congregational church and had been a professing christian for 56 years. Being one of the early settlers in this western country he knew what hardships were, and was ever ready to help bear them with those with whom he was associated. In his business life in this village, in connection with his son, they have had their shops demolished by the cyclone, and about a year ago fire destroyed their shops again, through all this Mr. Moseley came, and was not discouraged, and when at last he was to pass over the river of death, his faith was strong in his Savior whom he had trusted through life.

Lima.

—Mrs. Regan and her son "Bat" returned from a visit with friends in Oconomowoc, on Monday last.

—Mrs. Montgomery was taken quite seriously ill last Monday evening.

—The majority of our people ranked among the ungodly last Tuesday morning, and stood on slippery places.

—Fred Gould made a business trip to Janesville on Tuesday last.

—Mr. T. D. Anderson went to Madison last week, for a visit with friends in that city and vicinity.

—In the course of our travels a few days ago, we called at a house where there was a bright-eyed little gal of some nine or ten years. On our asking her if she did not attend school, her mother immediately answered for the little child, "that she would be glad to send her to school every day, but that she had so much to do that she had to keep her at home some of the time to help do the work." Mother! Did you ever stop from your work long enough to think whether your little daughter's help at this time is not the most expensive assistance that you can possibly procure? Not only is it costly on account of the very little she can do, but that help is obtained by the sacrifice of far too much of her best time for obtaining that education which she will inevitably need in the years to come, and the value of which cannot be calculated in paltry dollars and cents.

—Miss Ella Stillman returned last Monday, from a visit at Edgerton.

—How easy it is for everybody but me to be mistaken.

—There is a sweet little face in the cradle at Amos Gould's. Its a boy. Mrs. Gould is reported as being quite low at this writing.

—Our town was unusually quiet on Thursday and Friday of last week owing to the absence of the many who attended the lawsuit of George Warren against E. Hall, which was being tried before Esq. Clarke, of Milton. We are told the jury gave a verdict in favor of Warren for nearly $15, besides costs which must swell that amount quite materially.

—The democrats have been clamoring for a change for a long time but whether they would effect any improvement by so doing or not may be problematical, and we doubt not that a great change could be effected in Lima. And are not the times ripe for the project just now. This is leap-year and who says we haven't got young. Ladies enough who are of sufficient age to have been married as long ago as December anyway. Girls! whatsoever courting you find to do, do it with all your might. Some of the bashful young men may need encouraging. If so encourage them vigorously, don't stand shivering on the brink, but seize the present opportunity and some nice young man's affections, and plunge boldly into the sea of matrimony before the ice of 1884 closes the scene for another four years.

—Wonder if those good ladies who were so thoughtless as to completely blockade the church doors while they had a visit last Sunday evening, didn't forgot the passage about doing as they would that others should serve them the same trick, or words to that effect.

—D. A. Richards and his daughter Ida visited friends in Fort Atkinson last Saturday.

—It is currently reported that there is to be a wedding not far from section 12, town 4, north of range 14 east, before long.

—A gentleman who has kept a record of the temperature during the two seasons says that the average for January, 1883, was one and a half degrees below zero, and the same for this year was one-half below, a difference of one degree. Who says this isn't an open winter?

Emerald Grove.

—The funeral services of Mrs. Margaret Green took place at her late residence in La Prairie on Friday, February 1st, Rev. D. B. Jackson officiating. Music was rendered by the choir of the Congregational church. At the close Mr. and Mrs. R. Cheney rendered "Gathering Home" in a very touching manner. The following gentlemen acted as bearers: Messrs. J. P. Thomas, Frank Child, Matthew Van Allen, Stanley Joiner, Loren Finch, Thomas Parker. The remains were interred in the grove cemetery. The deceased was a beloved wife and mother, and a highly esteemed neighbor and friend. She was 48 years of age. She was ill less than a week, the disease being pneumonia—asthma.

—A meeting of the farmers in the vicinity of Emerald Grove occurred on Saturday evening last, for the purpose of making arrangements for the establishment of a creamery at the Grove. The meeting was well attended and among those present we noticed Messrs. Ezra Goodrich and James Clough, of Milton. Dr. Seeber was called as chairman and a committee of three was appointed consisting of James Plant, A. E. Joiner and D. M. Barlass for the purpose of corresponding with parties who would be competent to take charge of the institution. A second committee was also appointed consisting of Dr. Seeber, D. M. Barlass and C. H. Stoller to work among the farmers and see how many cows could be guaranteed the enterprise; 500 cows being considered necessary to make a success of the undertaking. After some remarks by Messrs. Ezra Goodrich, James Clough and others, a canvass was made of those present which resulted in securing a conditional guarantee of 128 cows. We hope the enterprise may prove a success.

—Hastings has a very fine article of English currants—13 pounds for $1. Call and get some.

—Remember the doughnut sociable to be held at Mr. R. Cheney's on Friday evening next.

—Rev. T. S. Oadams will speak upon "Temperance," on Sunday evening next, and Rev. D. B. Jackson will also lecture on the same subject on the following Sunday evening.

—Miss Jessie Jones left last week, for Albion, Wisconsin, where she will spend a week or two in visiting friends.

—The place belonging to Mrs. L. Spear, which has been vacant since her departure for Dakota last spring, has now been rented to Gilbert Norum.

—Our friend Alex Wells came very near "getting left" on Monday last, while waiting for the mail to be distributed at the Grove the team started for Darien on its own account; several parties with horses started in hot pursuit and finally overtook the runaways though not until the sleigh had been overturned and dragged some distance leaving the seats etc., in the snow. Alex will hereafter hitch his horses.

Strength to vigorously push a business, strength to study for a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. Do you desire strength? If you are broken down, have no energy, feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking Brown's Iron Bitters, a sure cure for dyspepsia, malaria, weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It acts on the blood, nerves and muscles and regulates every part of the system.

Mr. Justin Holden, Black Earth, Wis., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is well spoken of by parties who have used it in this region."

Mr. C. S. Donty, Omro, Wis., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters greatly helped my stomach, and through my efforts over a hundred bottles have been sold."

Center.

—Last Saturday was a grand gala-day for sleigh riding, and many of the young people embraced the opportunity by remembering the time worn injunction "never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day."

—We had the pleasure of attending church with the Disciples, Sunday and as has often been remarked in our hearing, they are a peculiar people. Nevertheless Elder Wells comes as near being Paul-like in his earnestness as any of our modern expounders, and in his "Amnesty Proclamation," or conditions necessary to become a citizen of Christ's kingdom, he surely struck the key note and held his audience spell bound for one hour. Judging from the size of the audience, their undivided attention to what was being said, and the old fashioned congregation rendering of their singing, we were forced to believe that this church situated on so prominent an eminence was surely destined to wield a benign influence in the community.

—As we were passing through Footville Monday, we stopped at the News Emporium and there met the Footville jotter assuming his allwise inquisitive nature intent on bleeding the Burg doctors, and sapping from them the sick, their whereabouts etc. During this interchange we learned that Center had quite a number of sick, as follows: Mrs. Bockwith was taken very severely Friday and in the evening her case assumed a very alarming nature, and only for the timely assistance of Dr. Braden the thread of life would have been sundered Sunday she was much better.

—Mr. E. L. Parmley was prostrated on Friday last, with a severe cold and Saturday the symptoms were no better, terrible headache and some fever. Monday morning this patient—nearly out of the woods.

—Saturday night Mr. Ira Parmley, senior, was compelled to retire from his office with a most severe headache, and Sunday his case was such as to demand medical assistance. Monday's Bulletin reported him confined to his bed, throat very sore but general indications encouraging.

—As fate would have it one of our commercial students, in his endeavors to be a good reinsman, with one hand, Sunday evening, left his, or their lovely impress in the beautiful snow, at the bottom of the ditch near the school house, in district No. 2. The old gray mare stopped when they hallowed, "Oh, dear!"

—The Michigan giant and his estimable wife, who have been the guests of Mr. James Cleland, returned home Tuesday. Mr. McKibon is surely a remarkable man, wonderful in his conversational qualities as well as his avoirdupois weight. Who wouldn't be a free trader that had the muscle and weight back of it, that this Michigan Goliah possesses.

—The patriarch, Witham, of Janesville, was seen stuck fast in a snow drift west of Ira H. Parmley's, Monday afternoon. A terrible ordeal for one of ancient origin.

—Last Friday Mr. Seth Fisher sold to Will Oliver, of Spring Valley, one of his choice short horn calves, the dam of this calf being unequaled in the county, is a sufficient guarantee as to the merits of the calf.

—Mr. O. W. Norton, formerly of this town, and prominently known in the county, is here on a three weeks' visit. Mr. Norton sold his farm in Center and moved to Marshalltown, Iowa, in the fall of 1867, where he has since been engaged in the mercantile business.

—Sherman N. Fisher is, and will probably be confined to the house until spring, from the effects of a surgical operation on one of his limbs, caused by softening of the bone. Calls and bouquets are always acceptable in such cases.

—There was a family reunion at Mr. Samuel Cleland's last Saturday. This being the first visit from their little grand children.

—The jubilee concert, at the Center church, by the Beloit colored troupe, next Thursday evening, is looked forward to by many as the all-important event of the winter. They come highly recommended, and we predict for them a good audience.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Mary A. Dailey, of Tunkhannock, Pa., was afflicted for six years with Asthma and Bronchitis, during which time the best physician could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 pounds in a few months.

Free trial bottles of this certain cure of all throat and lung diseases at F. Sherer & Co.'s drug store. Large bottles $1.00.

Chronic Diseases.

A Special Study for Years.

Dr. F. B. BREWER

Has made Chronic Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Nerves and Blood.

A special treatment for years. He is not a boastful, ignorant pretender, but an educated physician, seeking to do good, by devoting his talent and energies to the treatment of a class of maladies that have been with him a long and patient study. To be able to treat successfully chronic diseases it requires that a physician should be a sound, thorough scholar in the art of science and medicine generally. He should give his entire time to their study, be thorough in his investigations and have a long and varied experience. Dr. Brewer claims to work no wonders or to do any more than any well educated physician can do, who devotes his whole time to the study and treatment of chronic diseases exclusively, and has had his many years of experience. For years Dr. Brewer has visited the the places he now visits, and has obtained his reputation by being honest in his dealings, candid in opinions and reasonable in his charges. Those who are afflicted are invited to call, investigate and decide for themselves. It will cost nothing to do so. Address all letters to F. B. BREWER, M. D., Lock Box 288, Evanston, Ill.

Dr. F. B. Brewer will be at Janesville, Myers house, Saturday and Sunday the 16th of February

I CURE FITS!

When I say cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a time and then have them return again. I mean a radical cure. I have made the disease of FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS a life long study. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a Free Bottle of my Infallible Remedy. Give Express and Post Office. It costs you nothing for a trial, and I will cure you.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

Brieflets.

—Janesville chapter No. 5, R. A. M., occupy Masonic hall this evening.

—The militia companies meet in their armories this evening, for business and drill.

—F. H. Davies left this afternoon for a few days' visit with relatives at Madison and Mazomania.

—Mr. R. J. Clemons, of High street, first ward, is confined to his home by a slight attack of pneumonia.

—Mr. C. W. Kibbee and wife, of St, Paul, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cook, Court street, third ward.

—There was a large attendance at Prof. Severance dancing school last evening, all enjoying the social to the fullest extent.

—We are glad to note that Mrs. Anson Rogers spent a more comfortable night last night, and that her symptoms are generally more favorable to-day than yesterday.

—The revival meetings in the First M. E. church continue to draw large crowds of interested people, many of whom have resolved to lead a better life. Let the good work go on.

—The Janesville delegations who went to Madison to attend the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows, and State agricultural society, and Farmers' meeting, returned home to-day.

—Mr. C. W. Butterfield, of Madison, a historical writer of wide reputation, was in the city to-day, and was a welcomed caller at the Gazette office. He is a brother-in-law of Pere Hyacinthe.

—The fire department was out last evening from 6:30 until 8:10, one hour and forty minutes, and then it took the hose companies another hour to care for their hose after returning to their respective houses.

—Mr. A. H. Tifft has one of the finest barber establishments ever furnished in this city. It is located in Court Street church block, and is a perfect model of neatness and convenience. Not only that, but the work done there is first class.

—Acting Mayor S. B. Kenyon was yesterday elected Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows, a position which he has earned by years of hard labor for the benefit of the order, and is an honor worthily bestowed and richly deserved.

—The Temple of Honor social will be given in their hall in the Judd block on to-morrow, Friday evening, and not this evening as published in the morning paper. The party is for the benefit of members and their friends, who will meet for a pleasant evening social. Remember—Friday evening.

—The following good and true item is just now going the rounds of the press:—"There was a man in our town who thought him wondrous wise. He swore by all the fabled god's he'd never advertise, His goods were advertised ere long, and thereby hangs a tale—the ad. was set in nonpareil and headed "Sheriff's Sale."

—The funeral of the late Mrs. W. H. Norton, whose death was briefly mentioned in last evening's Gazette, will take place in St. Mary's church at ten o'clock to-morrow morning, Rev. Father Roche officiating. The deceased was a sister of ex-Alderman J. H. Burns, of the fifth ward, and leaves seven children besides her husband, and many relatives and warm friends, to mourn her taking off.

—Mr. J. W. Inman, residing in the town of Rock, near the village of Afton, died last night, aged 64 years. The deceased was among the early settlers of Rock county, and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death, his father, now upwards of eighty years of age, being among the number. The funeral will be held at the church in Afton, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

—A subscriber for the Weekly Gazette came into the office to-day, a good deal excited over the "bean market," and claiming that our market report on beans was not reliable. Pacifying him as best we could, and promising to do better, we left him, with the suggestion, that the best way to get a reliable report on beans was to bake them in the old fashioned way, and have them served hot for Friday dinners.

—The ladies of Court Street M. E. church were very pleasantly entertained at their missionary meeting yesterday afternoon, by Mrs. W. H. Bonesteel, of the fourth ward. A number of interesting papers and letters were read, relating to the wars in India. The bountiful supper served at seven o'clock, created a desire in the minds of all present to become foreign missionaries, if the hostess could be persuaded to accompany the party as commissary.

—We notice in to-day's Recorder a little ad, headed "Commercial Printing" offering inducements on job work. We wish to remind our patrons that the Gazette Printing company has a job department under the management of one of the best job printers in the state. Modesty prevents our saying much about the quality of our work, but we are frequently told it is first class. We have nothing to offer in the way of "down go the rate" prices for cheap printing, believing that good work at living prices is always in demand.

—Yesterday afternoon at three o'clock the funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Allen Lee, mother of Mrs. James A. Webb, was held in the Congregational church, Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. W. F. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducting the solemn services. The beautiful song service was rendered by a quartet composed of Mrs. H. A. Smith, of Rockford, Mrs. C. E. Moseley, Wm. Bladon and George K. Colling. There was a large attendance of sympathizing friends to listen to the solemn and impressive funeral service, at the conclusion of which the remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery, and placed in the vault, to be removed in a few days to the cemetery at Allens Grove, where they will be laid beside her husband and children buried there. The bearers were Messrs. J. O. Echlin, Josiah Wright, Isaac Farnsworth, J. A. Cunningham, James Sutherland and F. S. Eldred.

—We were shown to-day by Messrs. F. C. Cook & Co., jewelers opposite the postoffice, the handsomest watch that has ever been our good fortune to look at, and it is unquestionably the finest watch ever offered for sale in this city. The case is of pure gold—in the center of the back sets a large and brilliant diamond, surrounded with beautiful filigree work in a variety of colors; on the front side is a handsome raised shield surrounded with filigree work similar to that surrounding the diamond on the back. The case around these figures is handsomely carved or engraved. On the cap over the movements is a frame for holding a photograph. This watch is only one of the many now held in stock by this firm, which is carrying the largest stock of the finest watches, jewelry and silver ware to be found in the state. It is a rare pleasure to stop into the store and inspect the beautiful gems they are now offering to the public.

—A clever little theft of a couple of toy express wagons took place at the furniture establishment of W. H. Ashcraft, on West Milwaukee street, at one o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Ashcraft was engaged in preparing a coffin in front of his store, where two or three little wagons were on exhibition, when he noticed two small boys, apparently not over six or seven years of age, drawing a sled upon which was an old wooden box. The boys stopped to examine the wagons; close by was another boy some twelve years old, evidently coaxing the little fellows up to steal the wagons. Soon Mr. Ashcraft was called to the back part of the store for something, and the boys took advantage of his absence, threw the old box off the sled, placed the wagons on in its place, and escaped by way of River street. When Mr. Ashcraft appeared again at the front of the store, the big boy was on hand to inform him of the theft, but demanded a reward to tell of the whereabouts of the wagons and little thieves. Refusing to comply with this demand, the boy started out with a promise to find them; but as he did not return, it is supposed he has appropriated them to his own use, or sold them for what he could get. The officers were put on his track.

Municipal Court.

In the municipal court the jury impanelled in the case of the state vs. Wm. Garnett, brought in a verdict of guilty last evening after an absence of only ten minutes. As the case now stands Garnett has a number one chance to learn a good trade in the state reformatory.

An information was filed this forenoon in the case of the state vs. Judd C. Newell, charging an assault with intent to kill, and an assault with intent to do great bodily harm. The trial will not take place until sometime next week.

The Mutual Life of New York.

However interesting the annual statement of other life companies may be, none of them can compare in importance with the reports presented by the Mutual Life insurance company of New York. It is the largest of all companies, has a large body of policy-holders, greater assets, and each year receives and disburses more money than any other similar institution in the world. How it obtained so firm a hold upon public confidence, and why it retains that confidence, are questions easily answered. It combines liberality with safety, and always keeps its pledges. It never indulges in illegitimate methods to attract policy holders. The report of the Mutual Life, published in another column, shows that it has $101,148,248.25 assets, a surplus of over $12,000,000, more than $367,364,771 of insurance distributed among its great army of policy holders, and that it paid to the policy holders last year the sum of nearly $14,000,000, or over $46,000 every business day in the year. The statement will repay careful perusal.

"The Hidden Hand."

"A fine house greeted the performance of 'Hidden Hand,' by the Whiteley company, specially selected for the piece, and the audience was well pleased. Time-honored as is the play, the version presented is very materially different from those heretofore seen here, and is exceedingly well played by a company of much evenness, of which Fannie Francis and Billy Robinson are the central figures. Her Capitola is graceful, pleasing and sparkling. Billy Robinson makes much of Wool, and the two contribute to the somewhat sensational play a large amount of innocent merriment. The piece is to be given again to-night."—St. Paul Pioneer Press, August 31, 1882.

See this excellent company, at Myers opera house, next Friday evening.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 19 degrees above zero. Cloudy with northeast wind. At one o'clock p. m., the register was 30 degrees above zero. Cloudy with east wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 4 degrees below and 18 degrees above zero.

In the midst of rheumatic or neuralgic torture, it is pleasant to feel a masterly remedy moving through your system, driving out the pangs and freeing the tied joints. Writing of ATHLOPHOROS—the champion remedy—Mr. George Haden, Fair Haven, Conn., says: "Have been a victim of Neuralgia for years. During the last attack, tried ATHLOPHOROS. Its effect was truly wonderful. After the second dose I felt it all through me, and my pain was gone. In three hours I was able to resume work, and have not been troubled since."

Sam'l of Posen.

This charming comedy-drama, famous for having the longest mid-summer run ever known in America, will be presented to the theatre-goers of this city on next Monday evening, and will be interpreted by his original and entire company and the same which supported Mr. Curtis during his brilliant New York engagements. "Sam'l of Posen" is well known all over the length and breath of the land as the most successful and absorbing play of the day, and everywhere it has been greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences. As this will be the only performance of this dramatic marvel this season, those desirous of attending should make early application for seats, which can be secured at Prentice & Evenson's.

There is probably more fun in "Sam'l of Posen" than in any other drama ever played in this country. It is wonderfully interesting and comical, and keeps an audience in a state of uproarous laughter from beginning to end.

EMORY'S LITTLE CATHARTIC PILLS are sufficiently powerful for the most robust yet the safest for children and weak constitutions.—15 cents.

INCENDIARISM.

The Central House Again Fired by Some Unknown Person.

Good And Efficient Work by the Fire Department.

Loss Estimated at $700.—Fully Insured.

An alarm of fire was sounded last evening at 6:30 o'clock, by the west side engine house bell, calling the fire department to the Central house, corner of Franklin and Dodge streets. The department turned out with its usual promptness, and in a few minutes had two powerful streams of water pouring into the building. The fire, when first discovered, was working its way through a closet under the stairs on the first floor and south end of the building on Franklin street, which was soon extinguished by the department. The hotel, especially the upper rooms, second and third floors, were filled with smoke, which smelled strongly of kerosene oil, and so suffocating was this smoke that it was with great struggling that the firemen could remain inside long enough to ascertain whether the building was on fire in another place or not. Soon, however, fire was discovered eating its way out of another closet on the second floor, in the center of the building, some distance from the location of the fire below. The smoke was so suffocating on this floor that the firemen, at first were unable to reach the place, and a stream was taken into a window at the north end of the building on Dodge street and the fire reached from this point. Fire was also set in a bed room at the north end, but did not get under way before it was discovered and extinguished. The rooms on the third floor were now filled with smoke, and the chief engineer fearing that fires had also been kindled in some of the rooms, ordered the building flooded with water, which order was obeyed, and the hotel was thoroughly wet down, having the appearance, after a half hour's work of the department, of almost a complete wreck. Openings were made in the roof, and after the smoke had cleared away, and a thorough search made, no more fire being discovered, the department was ordered home, being in service one hour and forty minutes.

The building is owned by Mr. Chauncy Stevens, and was insured for $2,700. Mr. Stevens also owned a part of the furniture upon which there was an insurance of $500. The Central house was occupied by Mr. C. C. Jewell, who had an insurance of $400 on his furniture.

The insurance on the building and furniture was all in Janesville agencies, the agency of Mr. J. H. Kinney having a policy in the North German, $1,200 on the building, and $400 in the Trans-Atlantic on the furniture. The agency of J. G. Saxe had a policy of $1,500 on the building, and one of $500 on the furniture, all in the Phœnix. The loss on the building will reach some five or six hundred dollars, and that on the furniture not over two hundred and fifty or three hundred dollars.

There is no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary, as this is the second time the building has been fired, the time before being on New Years night. At the time of the fire last evening, all the guests in the house were in the dining room in the basement, at supper, and the fire was discovered by a citizen passing, by seeing the fire in the hall way.

ADDS TO THE VALUE OF FLOUR.

The eminent Baron Liebig, the greatest chemist in the world, says: "It is certain that the nutritive value of flour is increased ten per cent by your Baking Powder."

The Odd Fellows' Encampment.

The grand encampment, I. O. O. F. reassembled last evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly chamber, with G. P. Barron in the chair. The special order of the evening being the exemplification of the secret work of the order, G. Rep. Brasted, of Fond du Lac, performed that duty and the special order was discharged. Stevens Point was selected as the place for holding the next session of the grand encampment. The election of officers was made the special order for 10 a. m. Wednesday. The encampment then adjourned to Wednesday morning.

The grand encampment met this morning, pursuant to adjournment, G. P. Barron in the chair. Several reports of committees were received and disposed of. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:

G. P.—Chas. Kendall, Beloit.
G. H. P.—Joseph Schroeder, Racine.
G. S. W.—S. B. Kenyon, Janesville.
G. Scribe—L. B. Hills, Madison.
G. Treas.—H. E. Huxley, Neenah.
G. J. W.—S. M. Stevens, Sparta.
G. Reps.—C. L. Doring, Portage, and R. D. Torey, Milwaukee.
G. M.—G. B. Kidder, Star Prairie.
G. S.—L. M. Stevens.
G. G.—David H. Wright.

A resolution was adopted, tendering the thanks of the grand encampment to Governor Rusk and State Superintendent W. H. Bennett for the use of the assembly chamber and for courtesies extended during the session, and also to the several railroads which granted reduced fare to representatives and members in attendance.

The officers were installed this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The attendance throughout the session has been large, about 150 delegates and members being present. Adjournment sine die will probably be taken before evening.—Madison Journal.

Remember! remember! The tickets to see "The Hidden Hand" by Whiteley's original and special "Hidden Hand" company, are only 50 cents. Every one can go. Remember! at Myers opera house on Friday evening.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with bleeding of lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

A Criminal Fool.

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—John Ring, aged 21, has for six months past endeavored to keep company with Margaret Le Gree, but she has persistently refused his attentions, owing to his intemperate habits. Tuesday he asked her to marry him, and she refused. He hung around during the evening, and about 12 o'clock he drew a pistol and shot her. A small bullet entered the right arm near the elbow, inflicting a painful wound. Ring pleaded guilty, and was held in $1,000.

The Trade Dollar.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 7.—At a meeting of the house committee on coinage, a sub-committee reported a bill providing that for two years trade dollars shall be received at their face value for all dues to the government, and not again be paid out; that they may be exchanged for other silver coin at the sub-treasury and mints, or recoined into any authorized piece.

Want to Keep It Down to $10,000,000.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 7.—Chairman Willis, of the committee on rivers and harbors, says it is the disposition of the committee to keep the aggregate amount of the river and harbor bill down to about $10,000,000.

The disagreeable operation of forcing liquids into the head, and the use of exciting snuffs, are being superseded by Ely's Cream Balm, a cure for Catarrh, Colds in the head and Hay Fever. Price 50 cents.

Only Two Bottles.

Messrs. Johnston, Holloway & Co. wholesale druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., report that some time ago a gentleman handed them a dollar, with a request to send a good catarrh cure to two army officers in Arizona. Recently the same gentleman told them that both the officers and the wife of a well-known U. S. A. general had been cured of Catarrh by the two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm.

Twins in His Family.

From the Hartford Post.

He did not look dejected enough as he stood at the door, with his toes straying out one of his boots, the praying joint of his trousers worn very thin, and his coat of mail in so many pieces that it would be classed as third-class matter and sent by freight. His voice was of the tenous character which bespoke sympathy, as he said to the lady of the house:

"Please, ma'am, I'm an unfortunate being. Won't you buy a box of corn salve. I have twins in the family, and—"

"Oh certainly, if you are in needy circumstances. I don't feel the need of corn salve. Are the twins pretty? How old are they?"

"Not very handsome, no. They're boys. Seventeen years old last June. Much obliged for the nickle?"

RAWLINS' BACK SUPPORTING Shoulder Braces.

A varied experience amongst Children and growing Girls Teacher and medical attendant, lead Miss Emma J. Rawlins, the inventor of this BRACE, to believe that stooping shoulders and most spinal affections among Girls arise from the following causes: Debilitated muscles, owing to a lack of free and unrestricted exercise such as is allowed their brothers, or bad positions in standing and sitting.

This Brace affords a firm, yet gentle, SUPPORT TO THE BACK, at the same time drawing the shoulders backwards and downwards, expanding the chest and giving a healthy and graceful position.
